Andrea is a Subtle Energy Medicine Specialist, an experienced crystal and flower remedy healer and colour therapy consultant.

Andrea brings her clients into harmony by discovering imbalances in the energy field. Crystals have particular properties which shape and focus the energy during the healing. As the client experiences increased wellbeing within themselves, improvements are naturally achieved in health, family situations, relationships and work environments.

With the use of crystals, colour and flower remedies, I will help you to understand your emotional world and thought processes, you will find balance, you will regain energy, you will be more relaxed, you will look at issues differently.
