Join the Order of Sai Maa Brahmacharya for an extraordinarily transformative experience that will move you into an ever-deeping resonance with Sai Maa and your innate divine light.

It's okay, dive within... step away from the meetings, the family, emails and errands, and rest in the stillness of your innermost Self.

Immerse yourself in the spiritual practice that your very being is aching for... four days and nights amidst the awe-inspiring beauty and heightened frequencies of Sedona, Arizona.

Experience the true spirit, unexpected joy, and freedom of sadhana, where all aspects of your being are dedicated to spiritual discipline and honoring the divine, completely unencumbered by the distractions of daily life.
